

GRAMMARIAN ROLE DESCRIPTION

Here is your role description as a Grammarian:

1. To explain Grammarian's role when you are called in the beginning of the meeting (up to 2 min).
2. Listen to everybody's word usage throughout the meeting. Write down any awkward use or misuse of the language (incomplete sentences, sentences that change direction in midstream, incorrect grammar, incorrect words or their mispronunciation) with a note of who has done those mistakes. Do not write down every minor language misuse, only focus on the major mistakes.
3. When called on by the General Evaluator during the evaluation session:
 - Stand up and present your report (which mistakes have been made) (up to 3 min).
 - Try to offer the correct usage in every instance of misuse (instead of merely announcing that something was wrong).
 - Report on and praise creative language usage.

Also, at our club Grammarian has the role of a Word Master. This means that you should find an interesting word or phrase which is not commonly used and would be interesting to learn, then present it to us.

1. Before the meeting, write your word on the flip chart.
2. During your role presentation as a Grammarian, announce the word of the day, explain it and give examples on how to use it.
3. During the meeting count the word usage.
4. When you are called for the final report, say how many times the word has been pronounced in total and who used it most often. Congratulate them!

We wish you best of luck!
